

Inspire, motivate, engage!

These three words epitomize United Way of Halifax Region and its work in the community. United Way forms partnerships by actively mobilizing the talents, skills and resources of individuals, neighbourhoods, businesses and organizations to build an extraordinary community. Through the annual workplace campaign, United Way raises funds that are distributed to selected agencies, neighbourhood projects and United Way initiatives all designed to enrich and enliven our community. United Way builds on strengths to make a measurable and long term difference ensuring Halifax is a great place to live. This United Way is also recognized for its contribution to the national United Way movement.

Senior Director of Development

United Way of Halifax Region

United Way is seeking an individual who shares the vision of building an extraordinary community and thrives on impact, challenge and positive energy. This senior leadership role will work closely with staff, a volunteer board and senior community leaders to shape and deliver successful resource generation strategies. Initiatives include the annual workplace campaign (which currently generates $5.3 million) as well as opportunities to expand the resource generating potential. You have earned a reputation as an innovative, inspiring communicator who can see and seize opportunity. As one of the most senior development positions in Atlantic Canada, your proven ability to design and deliver sterling resource generating initiatives will be leveraged and rewarded. You have a strong drive and desire to make your mark working in an environment that is inspiring, nimble and fun. Qualified applicants should submit a resume by December 2, 2005 to Evelyn Barkhouse, Chief Operating Officer, United Way of Halifax Region, 7th Floor Royal Bank Building, 46 Portland St., Dartmouth, NS, B2Y 1H4; fax (902) 423-6837; e-mail ebarkhouse@unitedwayhalifax.ca

We thank all candidates for their interest, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted. For a complete job description, visit www.unitedwayhalifax.ca

